Why write a book?

Woman's Literary Union

Reading & Author Talk on Saturday 10/5 10:00 AM

Three authors tell the story behind the story. Memoirist Suzanne Farrell Smith, poet Cheryl Wilder, and local short story writer Claire Guyton read from their work, then share the challenges and rewards of telling a personal story through a particular genre.

We will have light refreshments after the program.

Free and open to the public.
